

Australasian Osseointegration Society 8th Biennial Conference Training program

Friday 11 November 2011

0730	Registration opens
0730–0830	Delegate welcome tea and coffee with light breakfast Exhibition Hall
	Concurrent training sessions:
	Practice Managers Riverbank Room 1	Auxiliary staff Riverbank Room 2	Lab Technicians Riverbank Room 3
0830–0915	Update your skills in the ever changing legislation Janet Binder Janet Binder Consulting	Implant maintenance: how to keep them healthy and treat failing implants Prof Saso Ivanovski Griffith University, Australia	Patient centred treatment, pathways to excellence (part 1) Olivier Tric Olivier Tric Dental Lab, USA
0915–1000	Benefits of using software to effectively manage your practice: tools, tips and tricks Dr Gary Secombe Centaur Software (dental4windows)	Stock control and implant tracking: maximising the potential of implant tracking Daive Rinaldi Data Vision Australia (Oasis & Exact)	A new option for superstructure design Asst Prof Sascha Hein Tufts University, Boston USA
1000–1030	Presenting complex treatment plans and tracking patients undergoing prolonged staging implant treatment Daive Rinaldi Data Vision Australia (Oasis & Exact)	Tools for dramatically improving efficiencies within your practice Dr Gary Secombe Centaur Software (dental4windows)	Implant overdentures: essential knowledge for the dental technician Stuart Boast Toland Laboratories
1030–1100	Morning tea Exhibition Hall
1100	Remembrance Day Moment of silence Exhibition Hall

Concurrent training sessions:
	Practice Managers Riverbank Room 1	Auxiliary staff Riverbank Room 2	Lab Technicians Riverbank Room 3
1105–1145	Using photography to improve your implant aesthetic practice Francine Poole AOS Secretariat	How to improve safety for patients and staff, with a focus on infection control in your implant practice Rose Fahey Calvary Wakefield Hospital and private consultancy	Excellence in dental aesthetics: new trends and materials in aesthetic implantology Luc and Patrick Rutten Dental Team bvba, Belgium
1145–1235	Is the single tooth implant a reflection of comprehensive dental care? Dr Cosimo Maiolo	An essential guide to fundamentals of creating the correct environment for surgical procedures Peter Teekens University of South Australia	Everything old is new again: precision milled superstructures Peter Vryonis Peter Vryonis Ceramist (VIC), Australia
1235–1330	Lunch
Concurrent training sessions:
	Practice Managers Riverbank Room 1	Auxiliary staff Riverbank Room 2	Lab Technicians Riverbank Room 3
1330–1415	Marketing - a step-by-step approach to generate implant referrals Randi Goda Momentum Management	Essential tools and skill sets for managing communication with implant patients Sandi Foley Indigo Consulting	Patient centred treatment, pathways to excellence (part 2) Olivier Tric Olivier Tric Dental Lab, USA
1415–1500	Converting your patients to want comprehensive dentistry Sandi Foley Indigo Consulting	Marketing - it's a job for the entire team Randi Goda Momentum Management	Alternative abutment design options for the single tooth implant restoration Mark Cotter Ceramic and Implant Design, Australia
1500–1530	Afternoon tea

1530–1700	Concurrent training sessions:
	Practice Managers Riverbank Room 1 1530–1615 Overcoming the affordability hurdle in implant dentistry Katie Foos GE Money 1615–1700 Strategic management of human resources Sandi Foley Indigo Consulting	Auxiliary staff Riverbank Room 2 1530–1600 Disposables - protecting yourself and the patient! Greg de Fries Defries Industries 1600–1630 Using oral disinfectants in preventing and managing infections around implants Mark Earl and Hygiene Team The Dental Practice 1630–1700 Digital photography, unlocking the secrets of visual communication Francine Poole AOS Secretariat	Lab Technicians Riverbank Room 3 1530–1700 Residual ridge anatomy: when implants really help Positional statements - future trends in the art and science of dental technology Panel: Luc and Patrick Rutten Asst Prof Sascha Hein Peter Vryonis Mark Cotter
1700–1800	Training session happy hour Riverbank Foyers (for all registered training session attendees)
1700	Registration and speakers' support centre closes Industry exhibition closes
1900	Pre-dinner drinks
1930–2330	Conference dinner Presented by Astra Tech Adelaide Convention Centre, Hall F

Saturday 12 November 2011

0800	Registration opens
	Concurrent training sessions:
0900–1030	Practice Managers Meeting Room 2 EXACTLY what you want Leesa Sarandoglou Software of Excellence	Auxiliary staff Meet in Riverbank Foyers to be split into sessions Workshop 1a: Creating the correct environment for surgical procedures Peter Teekens University of South Australia, and Mandy Navacchi The Queen Elizabeth Hospital Riverbank Room 1 Workshop 1b: How to improve safety for patience and staff with a focus on infection control in your implant practice Rose Fahey Calvary Wakefield Hospital and private consultancy Riverbank Room 2	Lab Technicians Riverbank Room 3 Close encounters with technical experts: simultaneous displays and demonstrations with tips and techniques utilised by our panel of expert technicians Panel: Luc and Patrick Rutten Olivier Tric Asst Prof Sascha Hein Peter Vryonis Mark Cotter
1030–1100	Morning tea
1100–1230	Practice Managers Meeting Room 2 Embracing technology and making it work for you Dr Gary Secombe Centaur Software (dental4windows)	Auxiliary staff Attendees to go to alternate session Workshop 2a: Creating the correct environment for surgical procedures Peter Teekens University of South Australia, and Mandy Navacchi The Queen Elizabeth Hospital Riverbank Room 1 Workshop 2b: How to improve safety for patience and staff with a focus on infection control in your implant practice Rose Fahey Calvary Wakefield Hospital and private consultancy Riverbank Room 2	Lab Technicians Riverbank Room 3 Questions and answers Panel: Luc and Patrick Rutten Olivier Tric Asst Prof Sascha Hein Peter Vryonis Mark Cotter
1230	Training sessions conclude		